James Zahansky selected as new board member for the NECT Chamber of Commerce

Pomfret Center, CT (March 31, 2017)— Jim Zahansky has been selected as a Director on the Board of the Northeastern Connecticut Chamber of Commerce. Jim is Principal/Managing Partner and Chief Goal Strategist at Weiss & Hale Financial, along with Principal/Managing Partner, Laurence Hale, AAMS, CRPS® and Partner Jim Weiss, AAMS, RLP™. This distinction allows Jim Zahansky, investment advisor and goals-based planner, team builder and former marketing Vice President, to help the Chamber develop excellent programs for our region. Jim is also involved with organizations like Frog Rock Basketball, QVCC Foundation and other charitable organizations in the area. This Board position proves beneficial opportunities for the community, and Zahansky, a life-long native of the area, commented, “I look forward to helping with Board’s community endeavors and helping the Chamber expand the reach and scope of our NECT Chamber programs and membership. We have a lot more to grow here in Northeastern Connecticut.” Each employee at Weiss & Hale Financial is part of the “Give Back” initiative, giving back to such local organizations as The Hole in the Wall Gang, Daily Bread and The Last Green Valley.
